1. The following is a list of personalities in the Sovjetische Mineralölverwaltung as of 1 April 1948. The situation is still fairly fluid and other changes are expected. Fourteen Russians in leading positions are said to be about to be dismissed and sent back to Russia.
2. Rabinin, director-general of the SMV in Austria, has the following two deputies:
 - a) Tolgachev, former director of the Nowa refineries, who is now responsible for the Zentrale, refineries, and all SMV departments in Vienna. He replaces Prigorniev, who was recalled to Moscow late in March 1948 to report on the oil situation.
 - b) Captain Lutkov, the second of Rabinin's deputies, is responsible for the Zistersdorf fields and oil installations.
3. Korinevsky has replaced Gervart, who is now in Kledering near Schwechat running a plant for the reprocessing of old oil.
4. A Russian woman by the name of Klimakova is employed as interpreter in the SMV laboratories. Since late in April, the SMV laboratories have been directed by a Russian woman whose name has not yet been ascertained.
